When ailing plutocrat Harlan Roderick invites his young protégé Athul Laal to live at Roderick Place in downtown Manhattan, what Athul believes to be his first step into the inner circle of the world's elite soon turns into a living nightmare. A nightmare that dwells within the imposing high-rise...

SOLOMON KANE: THE SERPENT RING #1

Titan Comics

Writer/Artist Patrick Zircher brings Robert E. Howard's Puritan avenger to his own new series after his action-packed return in the pages of Savage Sword of Conan magazine! Featuring new cover art by Hellboy creator Mike Mignola, Solomon Kane: The Serpent Ring continues the adventures of the bold hero Howard described as "...a man born out of his time — a strange blending of Puritan and Cavalier, with a touch of the ancient philosopher, and more than a touch of the pagan... an atavist of the days of blind chivalry he was, a knight-errant in the somber clothes of the fanatic. A hunger in his soul drove him on and on, an urge to right all wrongs, protect all weaker things, avenge all crimes against right and justice." Kane's new adventure begins this March!

IN THIS ISSUE

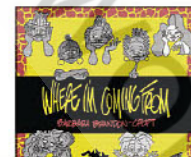

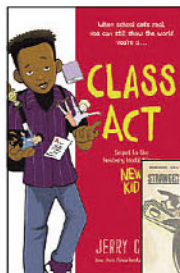

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2025!

February is Black History Month, and here at PREVIEWS, we're showcasing comics and graphic novels that feature black characters or were created by African-American creators, or somehow describe the black experience in America. In honor of the month-long event, we have showcased some of the great titles offered this month in a special boutique BHM section, located at the beginning of our Print section on page 230!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS AND SO LONG, 2024 (DON'T LET THE DOOR HIT YA' WHERE THE LORD SPLIT YA')!

So, this is it... the last issue of PREVIEWS. Well, the last for 2024, anyway! As we say goodbye to the year that was, a year full of so many life-altering changes and occurrences that would otherwise batter even the strongest of spirit and will to complete surrender, I guess I can refer back to that old adage: That which does not kill us, makes us stronger (or something like that). It's been a rough year for most, and hopefully (fingers crossed!) the next few years won't completely suck. We shall see...

But turning to more pleasant things, how about this issue of PREVIEWS? It's good to know that at least some things don't change. Yes, the contents change up each month, but the previous month's offerings are always replaced by new stuff, or the next issue of a favorite series. I take comfort in knowing that while each issue is its own collective beast, it's a beast that we're all familiar with.

There's plenty of new and exciting offerings in this issue, from which to choose. I myself have my eye on a few new series premiering this month, including The Loose End (Titan), The Herculooids (Dynamite), Bug Wars (Image), and Blondie: Against the Odds (Z2). That's but a few of the cool new series / graphic novels premiering in this issue.

Also appearing in this issue for the first time are the all-new offerings for FREE COMIC BOOK DAY 2025! We've got all of the Gold- and Silver-level titles featured in this month's FCBD25 section beginning on page 32! And let me tell you, we have a bumper crop of exciting new titles for every from kids to "Mature Readers" — truly something for everyone. And be sure to return for our January issue for the reveal of the 2025 FCBD Commemorative Artist's identity and to get a first look at the exclusive new artwork produced especially for the event. We're excited to be bringing you all this great selection of titles, along with all of the cool stuff that typically follows... including exclusive day-of-the-event merchandise produced specifically for FCBD and your local comic shop. It's going to be another banner year, to be sure!

Finally, we're in the home stretch on issue #2 of The GunHAND! I need to make page edits and letter the book, and soon we'll be on your local comic shop's shelves! Thank you all for your patience. I hope you'll agree that it was worth the wait!

From all of us here at Diamond Comic Distributors and our sister companies, we wish you all Happy Holidays, and a joyous and most excellent New Year!

I'll see you all here next month for the first issue of 2025!

Archie Comics in the Swingin' '60s

Archie comics have always had a finger on the pulse of teenage trends, tapping into the current clothing styles, slang, and interests of its young protagonists. The publisher had many successful titles in the 1960s, including Archie's Pals 'n' Gals that broadened the character-focus to follow more kids in Riverdale. Life with Archie had flexible storytelling about the teens as they were and sometimes as secret agents or superheroes.

Riverdale started to really rock with The Archies band, inspired by The Monkees, the fictional band appeared in comics and in The Archie Show animated series. Josie, the frontwoman of Josie and the Pussycats, was introduced in 1963. After a few years, her book was revamped to Josie and the Pussycats, putting more focus on the whole band and their quest to be famous.

Shadowman: Protecting Earth from the Deadside

Jack Boniface, aka the Shadowman, is a man from New Orleans who has supernatural abilities from the Shadow Loa, a powerful voodoo spirit that has been passed down through his family line. He can manipulate shadows, use them to bind people or entities, has enhanced strength, can regenerate, and is fearless. His job as Shadowman is to protect the world of the living from the Deadside.

He worked with the Abettors to fight the necromancer Master Darque, and other demons and spirits. The crafty Master Darque tricked Jack into serving him in the Deadside until Ninjak and Punk Mambo helped free him. At one point he traveled back in time and learned more about the Shadow Loa and his ancestors who wielded the power before him.

Please tell us a bit about yourselves!

We are Kaja and Phil Foglio, and for the last 25 years have been producing our webcomic, Girl Genius. We both write it, Phil does the art, and Kaja does all the techno jiggery-pokery needed to get it up online. Girl Genius has won three Hugo Awards, a Reuban Award for "Best Online Longform Comic," and has been nominated for a slew of other comics awards... which we have not won, not that we're bitter or anything. We have licensed novels, a video game, card games, our own Wiki, and an overwhelming entry on TV Tropes.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

Girl Genius (Vol. 1: Agatha Heterodyne and the Beetleburg Clank GN / AUG221099) has been keeping us Pretty Darn Busy, but we also do work for Steve Jackson Games (including the Girl Genius GURPS rulebook), and art for Magic: The Gathering. Phil also wrote an independent novel: The Night Sheriff.

What are you currently working on?

Because the Publishing Industry as we know it appears to be On Fire, we are presently preparing to publish our novels independently. This will include a here-to-fore unpublished 5th Girl Genius novel: City of Lightning. We are also creating tokens for Magic: The Gathering, as well as an illustrated Tarot Deck.

What indie titles are you currently reading?

I gotta be honest here. We don't really read comic books, per se. Every comic I follow is a webcomic, and aside from that, I read science fiction and mysteries. Letting the Home Team down, I know... We might want to skip this question!

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

AN ART HEIST UNLOCKS THE DOOR INTO NIGERIAN CULTURAL HISTORY IN BOOM!'S BRONZE FACES

The British Museum is built on stolen artifacts, taken from indigenous cultures over the centuries. The daughter of a Nigerian artist, whose work has been acquired by the museum, views her father's exhibition as pure theft and, with her friends, decides to liberate the artwork. But they find the museum has something much more interesting and cultural potent, the Benin Bronzes, 1,500 artifacts taken from the medieval kingdom on Benin, and this opens a door for them into the history of Africa itself. Writers Shobo and Shof Coker join with artist Alexandre Tefenkgi to explore the legacy of British colonialism in their new BOOM! Studios series, Bronze Faces, coming this February.

THE COLA WARS TURN BLOODY IN MAD CAVE'S POP KILL

The cutthroat world of cola sales in supermarkets and gas stations turns deadly in Mad Cave's new series, Pop Kill! AN HOMAGE TO CLASSIC 90S CRIME DRAMA MOVIES

THE LOOSE END is a fast paced action adventure in the vein of movies such as DESPERADO, SWINGERS, HEAT, and RESERVOIR DOGS!

Titan Direct Market Coordinator Chief Stride recently chatted to Dave Dwonch and Travis Hymel creators of the upcoming new crime drama, The Loose End.

DAVE DWONCH & TRAVIS HYMEL THE LOOSE END

CS: The Loose End has a very filmic presentation to it. Were you inspired by any particular movies during the comic's creation?

DD: For sure. The Loose End is sort of an homage to action flicks like Man on Fire, Desperado and Heat mixed with comedy beats from movies like Swingers and GO. It's a high concept love letter to Miramax that doubles as an F.U. to the head honcho over there.

TH: Dave put me in the mindset that this book would be the Miramax movie that was never made. So, with that in mind I picked a couple of movies to draw from depending on the issue. For instance, I was inspired by Rounders and Casino. Issue four is our love letter to Home Alone.

CS: In terms of the lead character Steven, he seems to be a mixture of a down-on-his luck bum, hanger-on, and wannabe script writer. What challenges do you face as a writer when your main protagonist isn't an all-action hero?

DD: Being a 100% certified bum and wannabe writer, it really wasn't that hard to get into his mind! But seriously, I've had my fair share of success and more than my fair share of failure in the comics industry, and I put a ton of my neurosis into the character.

CS: Without giving too much away, our band of ne'er-dowells take a detour to Mexico and encounter some locals who don't put up with their shenanigans. How easy is it to juggle multiple plots and storylines across a single-story arc?

DD: Not too hard at all. It was a LOT of fun. I used a ton of 90s movie tropes in my writing, so a lot of story elements are introduced in non-linear ways. It's a fun roller coaster to be on for sure. Meta fiction is my sweet spot, and this book plays into that in a big way all the way through the series and into the twist ending.

CS: The cast is quite large. With this being the case, how do you go about giving each one defined characteristics?

DD: Spoilers: You kill a few of them!

TH: Always with the jokes, this one. The character design process was pretty fun. When Dave and I started talking about the look of the book, we decided to base the main characters on the Miramax troupe. Johnny Tarantula clearly based on Quentin Tarantino and Diedrich is based on Ben Affleck. Tim is definitely our Matt Damon.

CS: How do you collaborate on action scenes?

DD: My job is easy. I write everything in widescreen and imagine Bryan Hitch is drawing it. Job done. I've never told Travis that, but he's risen to my hidden challenge. It doesn't hurt that I started my career as a comic artist, so I feel confident in "directing" a good action scene. It's all about communication... conveying the needs of the scene. The trick is to make it visceral and personal, and to leave room for the artist to shine.

TH: What's nice about working with Dave is that he gives me the space to figure out what will work best for on the page. I think he trusts me enough to give me a setup that I can extrapolate on. After we talk, I "choreograph" the fight, always keeping the reader in mind.

CS: Is it possible we could see any of these characters again?

TH: I hope so! Haha. I told Dave multiple times that we could do a sequel. I tossed out a few ideas too, but I don't want to give anything away, just in case.

DD: Hollywood loves sequels. Only time will tell.

Nigerian cultural horror perfect for fans of The Many Deaths of Laila Starr and Jordan Peele's cinematic storytelling!

Soho, London. Childhood friends Timi, Sango, and Gbonka reunite on the eve of the British Museum's historic purchase of the works of Timi's father, the seminal Nigerian artist Adewale Balogun.

Timi has been invited as a "guest of honor," but what the Museum is heralding as a triumphant acquisition, the trio see as nothing short of brazen cultural theft. Emboldened by a night of drinking and shared outrage, they concoct a bold scheme... to steal back the artwork themselves! But when they come into possession of a document called "the Register," outlining dozens of colonial-era stolen artifacts, their sights turn even higher to the Benin Bronzes — the British Museum's cache of nearly 1,500 works of art stolen from the Kingdom of Benin.

Celebrated authors Shobo & Shof (New Masters) draw from their Nigerian heritage for the heist of a lifetime, joined by acclaimed artist Alexandre Tefenkgi (Once Upon a Time at the End of the World, The Good Asian).

Prepare for a story that's at once an exhilarating adventure and simultaneously a breathtaking descent into mythology, history, and the horrors of colonialism, perfect for celebrating the start Black History Month.

Building on the success of the critically acclaimed and bestselling Space Ghost series, Dynamite Entertainment is proud to bring another beloved Hanna-Barbera classic to readers this February — The Herculoids!

Hidden in the furthest reaches of space, the planet of Amzot is legendary for its fabled riches — and for the terrible fates that befall anybody who seeks to exploit them...

Those who survive their encounters tell blood-chilling tales of horrific, imposing monsters that guard the mysterious world — yet the lure of its abundant resources is too great to resist. Raiders and pirates continue to come from across the galaxy, and there is only one force strong enough to stop their constant attacks — The Herculoids!

But as strong as these defenders are, a recent battle may have pushed Amzot to its limits — and awakened a sleeping darkness within the planet itself!

Written by TOM SNIEGOSKI (Vampirella, Hellboy) and drawn by CRAIG ROUSSEAU (Batman Beyond, Gotham Adventures), The Herculoids #1 features a wealth of covers from some of the galaxy's most talented artists, including FRANCESCO MATTINA, JOSEPH MICHAEL LINSNER, BJORN BARENDs, FELIPE MASSAFERA, and the legendary creator of Hellboy, MIKE MIGNOLA!

TOM SNIEGOSKI DISCUSSES HIS DREAM PROJECT — THE HERCULOIDS!

Tom, when we first announced that you were attached to The Herculooids, and then again when we revealed more about the series at New York Comic Con this year, you mentioned that this is sort of a dream project for you. Can you tell us more about that, as well as your history with and affection for The Herculooids?

The Herculooids has always been a kind of Holy Grail project for me. I can still remember sitting in front of the television in 1967 (agh, I'm old!) watching episodes of this show and having my mind completely blown. There were monsters, but they were heroes, and they were fighting aliens and robots and all kinds of crazy crap! The Herculooids just found their way into my brain, made a nice nest, and stayed there into adulthood. I can remember, when I first got into comics, thinking that there should be a Herculooids comic, and I even looked for who might have the license, but nothing ever came of it. I never actually believed that I would ever write these amazing characters, but guess what? I WAS WRONG!

The Herculooids has such an interesting premise: It's an eclectic cast of mixed characters, and often they're kind of trying to hide and protect their existence and prosperity. How do you view this setup, and how are you approaching crafting your own original stories around it?

What I found interesting about the series — and it really came to mind when re-watching episodes — was that various races all over the universe REALLY wanted a piece of Amzot. This fascinated me, and made me start to think about what made this planet so damn special that they would need these incredible main characters to protect it. I really enjoy the basic premise of the series — invaders come to Amzot, try to conquer Amzot, and then get their butts handed to them by the Herculoids — but now, I'm going to be giving some back story as to what makes this world so darn valuable.

Speaking of the cast, it's almost an understatement to say that it's unique and colorful. There is the central trio of Zandor, Tara, and Dorno, but their companions Zok, Igoo, Tundro, Gloop, and Gleep really make the series stand out so much. How are you balancing this cast as well as finding their voices (or lack of voices, in several cases)? And do you have any favorites in writing them?

Funny story, I actually freaked out a bit when I realized that Zok, Igoo, Tundro, Gloop, and Gleep don't speak! Sure, they communicate in their own unique languages/voices, but not in a way that could fill a word balloon with some amazing writing. Working on those characters has been a bit of a challenge, but I think that once I put my thinking cap on, I figured out how best to depict them and how they would communicate. Zandor, Tara, and Dorno were pretty easy, seeing as they speak a language we all understand.

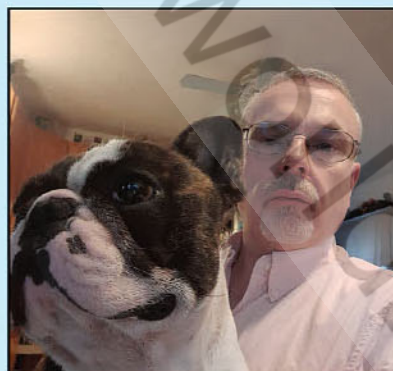

You're joined here by Craig Rousseau on art, who is the perfect match for the cartoony animation roots of The Herculoids given his celebrated work on titles like Impulse, The Perhapanauts, and others. The two of you previously collaborated not too long ago on Young Hellboy. How is it being reunited with Craig and having him bring these new stories to the page? And related to that, this first issue features a cover by Hellboy creator Mike Mignola, with whom you also have a long history.

Craig was the first person I thought of when I found out that I got the job. His style fit perfectly with what I saw going on in my skull, and I was ecstatic when he said yes to doing the book. Craig brings an amazing energy to my scripts, and his style really does tap into the nostalgic aspects of this series. I think people are really going to be blown away by the work he's doing here. And having a cover done by the phenomenal Mike Mignola is just the icing on the cake for a project that already was a dream come true.

The Herculoids* joins the smash-hit Space Ghost as another Dynamite title that originated from the Hanna-Barbera animation legacy, with fun connections to comics luminaries like Alex Toth. Are there other dream crossover Hanna-Barbera characters that you'd like to see possibly interact with your take on The Herculoids?

OH! I would LOVE to do a Herculoids/Space Ghost team up! I think Space Ghost writer David Pepose and I could come up with something truly spectacular. Also, I'm not sure if the Herculoids characters would mix properly with him, but I'd love to do a Mighty Mightor book. A superhero caveman would be right up my alley.

He is the terror that flaps in the night! The fowl that felons most fear! A legend in his own time (and his own mind)! He is... DARKWING DUCK!

DANIEL KIBBLESMITH TAKES FLIGHT WITH DARKWING DUCK!

Daniel, the incredible Darkwing Duck has made an impact on so many fans via the original show, the video games, the comics, and more. What has Darkwing Duck meant to you?

As a comedy writer who also writes superhero comics — where to start?!? Darkwing Duck was everything when it came out — before X-Men, before The Tick, before Freakazoid, it was the sophisticated, self-aware superhero cartoon and the inescapable talk of the playground — my generation's first superhero show of real quality and a completely accessible, goofy all-ages comedy.

Darkwing Duck didn't take superheroes too seriously, but it always felt like it took its audience seriously — as the next generation of fans of the genre it both celebrated and lampooned. For me and countless other kids, it also taught us the visual language of the superhero genre: Pulp era-inspired costumes, Batman '66-style gadgets and vehicles (all named, of course), catchphrases repeated like clockwork, and a supervillain rogues gallery as iconic as any in comics.

Throw in the narrative weight and the signaled importance of "to-be-continued" episodes — all but unheard of in children's television at the time — and all of it wrapped in the pitch-perfect, semi-sarcastic 1990s humor that absolutely molded my soft child brain into the barely-tolerable person I am today (sorry, former teachers!).

Interior art from issue #1 by Ted Brandt and Ro Stein

Among the wider Disney Ducks mythos, Darkwing is unique in its use of the superhero tropes that are so common in comics. Which means there is both the man (er... duck) behind the mask in Drake Mallard, as well as the persona of Darkwing Duck on patrol. What is your approach in showcasing these two sides of the character?

It's the superhero secret identity device boiled down into its purest and most potent reduction — a dashing, ultra-confident swash-buckler and a befuddled suburban dad who is anything but confident when it comes to parenting, but is trying his best as he muddles through it. Drake doesn't work for a newspaper or keep up appearances in high society. There's no significant Drake Mallard obligations or recurring subplots (other than a mild distaste for the neighbors). He's just... dad. But for me, the overlap in this Venn diagram is that they're protectors. As Drake Mallard, he watches over Gosalyn, and as Darkwing Duck, he watches over the city of St. Canard... and Gosalyn, who is allergic to staying at home (a tradition very much continued in this series). Gosalyn loves Drake and Darkwing equally as her "dads," but Drake is the one who protects her at the risk of being an uptight fuddy-duddy, and Darkwing is the one who inspires her to unleash her famously free spirit. It's a case of "Do as I say, not as I do," and Gosalyn, being Gosalyn, responds predictably.

Darkwing Duck creator and godfather (and our variant cover artist!) Tad Stones has said in interviews that the Darkwing Duck premise evolved, roughly, from his own experiences as a parent and the question "What if Batman (or a similar character) had a daughter who wouldn't stay home?" As the father of a young and spirited daughter myself, I can't help but transmute my own experiences into these scripts. Who expects to hear the question, "Dad, can I take my sword to ballet class?"

Ultimately, though, boring suburban life is just a status quo designed to be interrupted and threatened, and Drake Mallard is primarily a device to get us to more Darkwing — as Stones also famously said, “People want to see the guy in the mask.”

Darkwing is the star of the show (and comics), but he’s rarely completely solo — and his colorful cast of co-stars are nearly as beloved by his fans. Which other characters can we expect to see in this new series?

I don’t want to say “all of them” and unintentionally let anybody down, but... all of them? My other job is TV animation writing, and each issue of this series is designed to be as close to a “new” or “lost” episode of Darkwing Duck as possible. That means the prominent return of Launchpad, Gosalyn, Honker, probably the Muddlefoots, S.H.U.S.H., and every A-list villain you want to see — and some B- and C-list villains as well. The ultimate goal is to make reading this comic feel as much like watching the show as possible, and Darkwing Duck wouldn’t be Darkwing Duck without his city and the people who populate it.

The tag-team duo of Ted Brandt and Ro Stein are handling the artwork for this new series. How has the collaboration been going and what are they bringing to the table alongside your writing?

I was beyond thrilled to find out I’d be working with them — again! Ted and Ro also drew the cover and some interior illustrations for a book of DC Comics-themed holiday carols I wrote in 2020, the insanely named DC Christmas Carols: We Wish You a Harley Christmas from Chronicle Books. If I’d known I could pitch them for this series, I would’ve broken down the door to do so. So it’s a huge, huge gift that they’re on board and I get to put this level of action and pathos and zaniness into their capable (and unnaturally talented) hands.

A thing you’ll hear a lot from happy comics writers is, “This is exactly what was in my head, but better.” That’s a profound understatement here. They go beyond mind reading and truly independently understand the humor, the timing, the slapstick, everything that makes this feel like Darkwing Duck.

Our understanding is that this series seeks to chronicle Darkwing’s key history and origins as a kind of autobiography of sorts, as he retells it to his adopted daughter Gosalyn. What inspired this approach, and can you tell us a bit more about it?

Yes and no! As Darkwing describes himself in the first issue, he is a “Fun-reliable Narrator.” Our series feels like it takes place at some mysterious time in Darkwing’s past, but as any fan of the show knows, his past is already pretty mysterious. The original show presents Darkwing with multiple conflicting origin stories, and the then-common (but unforgivable) practice of airing episodes out of order has made Darkwing nigh-invulnerable to continuity. Then factor in the personality of Darkwing himself! He’s a braggadocious serial exaggerator obsessed with building his own legend. Can you really trust him to tell a “true” story? Our series tries! Drawing inspiration from comics like Batman: Year One and Untold Tales of Spider-Man, we bring you issues from early in Darkwing’s career, if not necessarily the very beginning — with every third issue a special flashback tale where Darkwing reads directly from his own autobiography! Narrating a true-ish story about how a mild-mannered mallard became the greatest crimefighter that St. Canard has ever known... DARKWING DUCK!

Anything else you’d like to add, or that you’d like readers to know?

Only that I am the writer who scripts in the night. I am the looming deadline you forgot to scribble on the calendar. I am (writing) DARKWING DUCK. And I couldn’t feel luckier. Let’s get dangerous — and let’s get pre-ordered!

After their investigation into the PB&J cell phone sabotage plot temporarily stalls, Officers Hopps and Wilde respond to a call that most cops would avoid like a stale donut — a break-in at the City Dump!

Or rather, a break-in at the Zootopia Recycling Depot, as its managing skunk Chuck Flowers is quick to emphasize when Hopps and Wilde arrive to view his security tapes. The footage of the felonious raccoons and opossums hauling away bags of garbage is clear enough, but what's not clear is what kind of trash it is that they're stealing — or why.

There's only one way to crack this case: It's time for a good old-fashioned stake-out!

They say that wisdom is the greatest of riches, and there's a wealth of it to be found on the shelves of the Duckburg Library. But Huey, Dewey, Louie, and their Uncle Scrooge are looking for something more tangible in the depths of its historic stacks — a forgotten map to the world's greatest treasure!

The hunt reminds Uncle Scrooge of an adventure from his early days with a young pilot named Launchpad McQuack, which he relates to the boys while they search for the map. All this racket draws the ire of the head librarian, Miss Bookbeak — who may hold the key finding their hidden quarry!

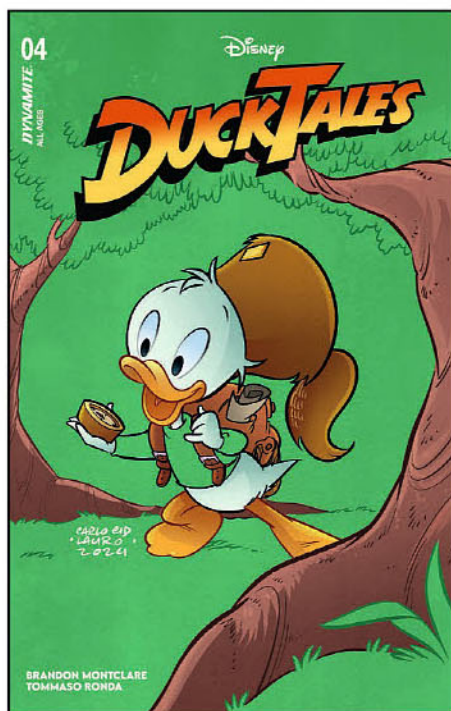

Learned scribe BRANDON MONTCLARE and master illuminator TOMMASO RONDA open a promising new chapter in Duckburg history with this DuckTales #4 — all bound in beautifully embellished covers by RONDA, IVAN BIGARELLA, FRANCESCO TOMASELLI, CARLO LAURO, and ALAN QUAH!

After landing in jail following a night of drunken revelry, Red Sonja hears an outlandish story from a fellow inmate. Deep in the mountains lies a dead city in a valley with no name. Abandoned and forgotten, its fields and streets are littered with the bones of two armies, all destroyed by a curse from a warlock who has long since vanished, along with his vast treasure — untold riches just waiting to be taken.

At least that is the legend. But Sonja's cellmate Morgo has more than a diverting tale — he's also got a map that says this legend could well be reality. All they need to do is break out of lockup and hit the road — which may be easier said than done!

Written by horror legend STEVE NILES (30 Days of Night) with stunning art by ALESSANDRO AMORUSO, Red Sonja: Empire of the Damned collects all five issues of the acclaimed miniseries, together with a complete cover gallery!

Ever since she took the throne of Sogoria, Sonja's journey has been leading to something greater still. Now, following a costly attack on the Emoran Empire, Queen Sonja's people are starved and near desperation, and their ruler is openly targeted for assassination. Her new enemy is within her walls, wears no flag, and knows no mercy. There is only one way that this can end — in fire and blood!

This second paperback compendium of the epic Queen Sonja series delivers a whopping 504 pages of the She-Devil with a Sword's adventures from issues #16-35, encompassing three complete story arcs in one amazing omnibus!

Wrestling is big business in arenas across the country, and for the Castros, it's the family business. "King" Castro is the patriarch of the family, he's also the manager, booker, promotor, MC, and owner of the local independent wrestling promotion KCPW. A real showman, Rey is known as the "King of the Death Match," and he's on the verge of getting a contract to go pro.

But when a shocking in-ring death occurs, it sends the family spiraling out of control, and down the path of revenge as one big question rears its head: was it an accident? Or was it murder? Pro Wrestling built the Castro family, and now it's about to tear it apart...

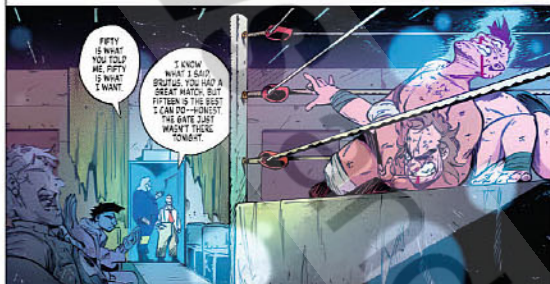

The worlds of pro-wrestling and family crime drama collide in Hard Style Juice!, from writer Clay McCormack (Batman White Knight Presents: Red Hood, Redline, Poser) and featuring explosively dynamic art from Ricardo López-Ortiz (The Flash: The Fastest Man Alive #1, Black Panther vs Deadpool). STORY BY JOE BRUSHA

In the early 1900s, the quiet town of Terrell, Texas was haunted by a string of horrifying disappearances. Children would vanish without a trace, leaving behind only their rotten, decaying teeth—tiny teeth that could have only belonged to them. The townspeople, desperate and terrified, turned their suspicions toward Carla Crane, a woman known for luring children with sweets. Accused of witchcraft and murder, she was condemned and burned at the stake, her screams echoing through the town. The legend of "The Candy Lady" was born. Now, over a century later, the curse of the Candy Lady has resurfaced. Children in Terrell are disappearing once more, and the chilling whispers of the past return with them. As fear grips the town, a dark truth emerges: The Candy Lady never died. Her spirit has been waiting, thirsting for vengeance. She's back, more vengeful than ever, and this time, no one will escape the Candy Lady's sweet, deadly wrath.

CREATOR FEATURE: CULLEN BUNN & DAN SCHOENING

CB: When I wrote THE CHILLING ADVENTURES OF SALEM, I knew I wasn't done with the malevolent familiar. I knew there were more stories to tell. Salem, after all, has a long history of mischief. He's gotten into all sorts of trouble over the centuries, and I thought it would be fun to see some of that trouble come back to bite him. Maybe literally.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Cullen Bunn is a writer of comic books, prose, film, and TV. He has written stories for some of the most well-known characters in the world. His work for Archie, Marvel, and DC includes titles such as BLOSSOMS 666, UNCANNY X-MEN, X-MEN BLUE, DEADPOOL KILLS THE MARVEL UNIVERSE, MAGNETO, SINESTRO, and many others. His creator-owned work includes THE SIXTH GUN, HARROW COUNTY, THE EMPTY MAN, BONE PARISH, BASILISK, and many others. His website is www.cullenbunn.com.

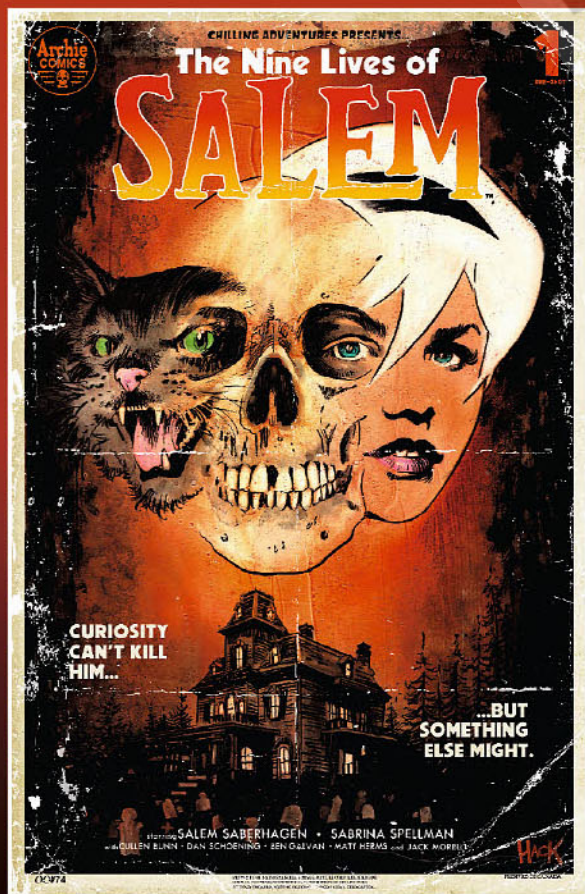

DS: I'm thrilled to return to the horror world of Archie Comics, and what better way to jump back in again than with Salem. The previous issue was an honor to illustrate and I'm excited to see what horrors Sabrina's infamous Black Cat conjures up this time!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dan Schoening is an artist and illustrator who has worked with DC Comics, Archie Comics, IDW, Cryptozoic Entertainment, and BOOM! Studios. His work for Archie includes titles such as CHILLING ADVENTURES OF SALEM, THE CULT OF THAT WILKIN BOY and its sequel, INITIATION.

JOËLLE JONES

THROUGH RED WINDOWS #1

BY RAM V & JOËLLE JONES

One of the hottest writers in comics, Ram V (The One Hand, The Many Deaths of Laila Starr), teams up with artist extraordinaire Joëlle Jones (Catwoman, Lady Killer) to tell a modern horror story that will leave you guessing until the bitter end!

When ailing plutocrat Harlan Roderick invites his young protégé Athul Laal to live at Roderick Place in downtown Manhattan, what Athul believes to be his first step into the inner circle of the world's elite soon turns into a living nightmare. Athul discovers that Harlan and his illness are inextricably connected to the high-rise, where secrets and monsters from both Harlan and Athul's own lives lie behind each door.

THROUGH RED WINDOWS is a grim thriller with overtones of gothic horror, loosely inspired by Poe but with a very modern twist. Not for the faint of heart!

For fans of WALL STREET, SUCCESSION, THE GAME, and CHANNEL ZERO.

LAST FLIGHT OUT OF WICHITA #1

BY B. CLAY MOORE & MACK CHATER

BRAND-NEW DSTLRY DEBUT from B. Clay Moore (Hawaiian Dick, Battle Hymn) and Mack Chater (Briggs Land).

Two Vietnam vets in the heart of a depressed 1977 America make a bad decision in an effort to make ends meet and find themselves in the middle of mob double-crosses and the ensuing violent fallout. Soon, the full force of Kansas City's organized crime—including the city's "black mafia," the infamous Purple Capsule Gang—turns to Wichita looking for two desperate men, their money, and a few pounds of flesh.

LAST FLIGHT OUT OF WICHITA is a thoroughly modern take on seventies noir, swinging from Las Vegas to Wichita and beyond.

For fans of FARGO, IN COLD BLOOD, and NO COUNTRY FOR OLD MEN.

NEW DSTLRY SERIES DEBUT from Stephanie Phillips, the acclaimed writer of LIFE, Harley Quinn, and Grim, and Marc Laming, the amazing artist of Star Wars, Red Sonja, and more!

From 1768 to 1771, the HMS Endeavour, commanded by the famous Lieutenant James Cook, sailed on a voyage of discovery around Tahiti, New Zealand, and Australia. It didn't end well.

Writers Brian Azzarello (THE BLOOD BROTHERS MOTHER, 100 Bullets) and Stephanie Phillips (Grim, Harley Quinn) team up with artist Danijel Zezelj (Nostalgia) and colorist Lee Loughridge (SOMNA, GONE) to create a masterfully crafted flip book, housing two enthralling stories in one!

To John Lewis, the civil rights movement came to an end with the signing of the Voting Rights Act in 1965. But that was after more than five years as one of the preeminent figures of the movement, leading sit-in protests and fighting segregation on interstate busways as an original Freedom Rider. It was after becoming chairman of SNCC (the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee) and being the youngest speaker at the March on Washington. It was after helping organize the Mississippi Freedom

Summer and the ensuing delegate challenge at the 1964 Democratic National Convention. And after coleading the march from Selma to Montgomery on what became known as "Bloody Sunday." All too often, the depiction of history ends with a great victory. But John Lewis knew that victories are just the beginning. (STL093017)

Every day after school, Emily and her best friend, Dae, make tried-and-true recipes, while she and Aunt Gina brainstorm new ones. But when Aunt Gina dies in an accident, Emily's life is turned upside down. Not knowing what to do, Emily breaks the rule and bakes her bad feelings into... a crumble. It looks gross. Dae says it tastes gross. But they can't stop eating it. Neither can Emily's classmates. And with her grief and pain baked into the crumble, Emily gets the comfort of being at least a little numb. So even though she's not supposed to, she makes it again, and again, and again. But baking (and eating) bad feelings doesn't really make them go away... (STL351554) (C: 0-1-0)

Aric of Dacia, nephew of Alaric, King of the Visigoths, is consumed by a relentless desire for vengeance against the Romans, who killed his parents when he was a child. Driven by his thirst to annihilate them, he launches a nighttime assault on what he believes is a Roman encampment, only to be captured by the Spider Aliens. This marks the beginning of years of enslavement. This prologue to "Retribution" (X-O MANOWAR #1, 1992) explores how Aric ultimately bonded with the powerful alien armor known as X-O Manowar.

Amar Chitra Katha
Intended Audience: All Ages

As dawn breaks, Surya, the Sun God, leaps over the horizon in his chariot, pulled by seven radiant horses. As he rises into the sky he spreads light and warmth all over the world. Seizing the opportunity to realize his dream of conquering Celtica, Julius Caesar blocks their passage, launching the Gallic War. Over the next six years, Caesar will lead the Roman Empire's last military campaign leading up to the Roman Civil War. Painted entirely by hand in watercolor, Conquest: Julius Caesar's Gallic Wars is an adaptation of Caesar's Commentarii de Bello Gallico, his first-hand account of the military campaign he led to conquer Gaul and expand the Roman Empire. Ivory Coast, 1978. It's a golden time, and the nation, too—an oasis of affluence and stability in West Africa—seems fueled by something wondrous. Aya is loosely based upon Marguerite Abouet's youth in Yop City. It is the story of the studious and clear-sighted 19-year old Aya, her easy-going

The bodies of citizens and the infrastructure surrounding them is constantly updating. From diets to day care to debt to dreaded encounters with everyday racism, no issue is off-limits. This remarkable and unapologetically funny career retrospective holds a mirror up to the ways society has changed and all the ways it hasn't. The magic in Where I'm Coming From is its ability to present an honest image of Black life without sacrificing Black joy, bolstered by unexpected one-liners eliciting much-needed laughter. When Rufus gets kicked out of the Denver storage unit he's been illegally sleeping in, his only prospect is a last-second wedding gig the next

MURDERBURG

By Carol Lay

$30.00 / SC / 256 pgs / FC / 7" x 10"

Murderburg (sic), a sleepy island town off the coast of Maine aims to maintain a quiet existence for their population of families, fishermen, craftspeople, and aging oddballs. But every so often, incursions from scheming outsiders require ex-gangster mayor Leo Scazzo (and his loving wife and children) to enact counter-schemes in order to keep the peace for the other townsfolk... Collecting the complete run of short stories (serialized as Murderville in the 2010s) under one cover, Carol Lay's vivacious cartooning keeps the light side of these dark comedies shining.

JOHN CUNEO'S GOOD INTENTIONS

By John Cuneo,
Introduction by David Apatoff

$30.00 / HC / 104 pgs /
FC / 9" x 8"

Enter a world where behind every suburban front door is a licentious bacchanal. Whether it's ram-headed, alcoholic, paper-pushers; hand puppet sex parties; or Hokusai's insatiable octopus (who turns out, knows a thing or two about the saxophone), Cuneo renders each intimate tableaux with delightfully feverish pen strokes and delicate watercolors. Effortlessly combining the fantastical and the grotesque, with bulbous heads, dapper cats, muses depicted as gargantuan women, and a multitude of sex acts invented for the occasion. A pearl-clutching, monocle-popping, knee-slapping graphic revelation.

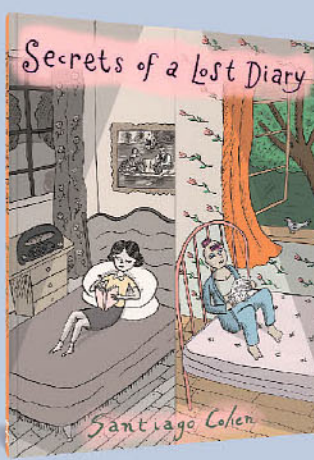

GIVE ME LIBERTY! A REVISED HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

By Gilbert Shelton, Ted Richards, with
Gary Hallgreen, Willy Murphy, and others

$20.00 / SC / 80 pgs / BW / 9.75" x 13"

50 years ago Gilbert Shelton (ZAP Comix, The Fabulous Furry Freak Brothers) and Ted Richards (Air Pirates, The Forty Year Old Hippie) combined their talents to create a more-or-less accurate summary of the founding of the United States of America as it was never taught in school! Give Me Liberty!... was originally serialized in alternative newspapers through 1975-76 and now Fantagraphics Underground brings this lost classic back to print.

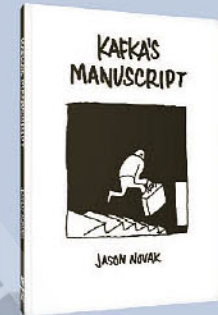

SECRETS OF A LOST DIARY

By Santiago Cohen

$25.00 / SC / 112 pgs / FC / 8" x 10"

When her dementia-stricken grandmother Babi dies, 15-year-old Lucy — sensitive and sentimental, with a punky haircut and ears full of piercings — is left reeling and unmoored. That is, until a secret diary locked away in a hidden compartment drops out from Babi's desk. What follows is a living epistolary, reflecting grandmother and granddaughter's struggles with belonging. Babi, caught between her Polish-Jewish past and Mexican home, both of them reckoning with lesbian identity and the need to conceal it. Lucy comes to find they shared far more than a birthday. A moving reflection on love, grief, and connection across generations.

KAFKA'S MANUSCRIPT

By Jason Novak

$20.00 / SC / 132 pgs / BW / 5" x 7"

With a stylistic nod to the wordless novels of Frans Maserell and the expressionist drawings of Franz Kafka himself, Kafka's Manuscript begins at Kafka's deathbed, where he entrusts his friend Max Brod with the task of destroying his unpublished papers. Brod refuses, and what follows is the story of how Kafka's literary legacy escaped Europe under the shadow of fascism. It is a survey of Kafka's paranoia in kinetoscopic monochrome, exploring in a new way what countless books about Kafka have previously attempted to explore with words. What better way to capture Kafka's enduring but evasive voice than with pantomime?

EC Comics: Revival and the Gaines File Copies

Part One

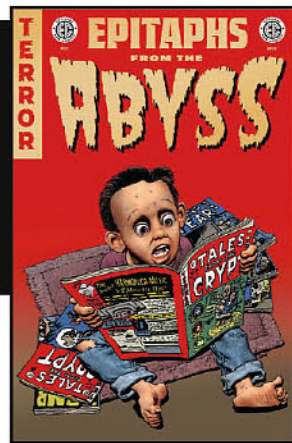

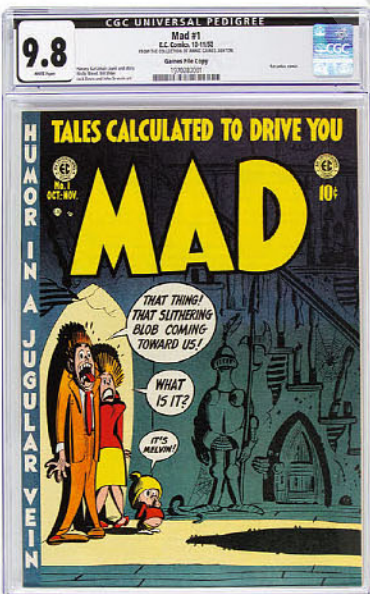

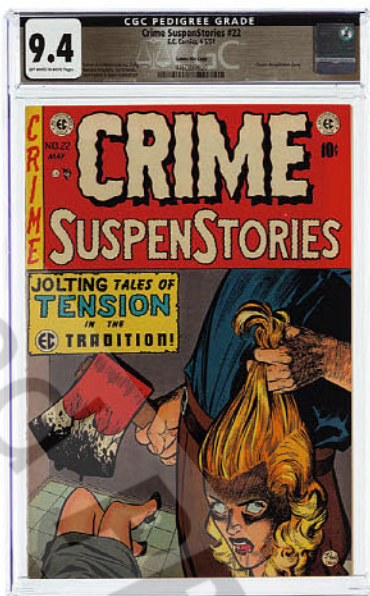

Launched this past summer, the Oni Press-driven revival of EC has conjured up memories of Tales from the Crypt, Weird Science, and the other great EC titles of the past. The Richard Corben-illustrated variant cover of Epitaphs from the Abyss #1, which was given away only to those who attended Oni's EC panel at Comic-Con International: San Diego, has definitely commanded a premium.

Back when EC was around the first time – in the 1950s – publisher William M. Gaines took steps to preserve the issues they had produced. They're the rarest of the rare, vintage EC titles: the Gaines File copies, and they bring big prices.

"Having any EC comic in pristine, unread condition is already irresistible," said Heritage Auctions Vice-President Barry Sandoval. "But the fact that the man in charge of the line was the one who archived the books, with a sense that they would be important later, takes their desirability to another level."

Sandoval noted that a CGC-certified copy 9.8 MAD #1, which sold for $96,000 in 2019, is among the pedigree's numerous highlights, as is a CGC 9.4 example of Crime SuspenStories #22, which sold for $90,000 in September.

"It always brings a smile to my face when we receive the Gaines File Copies on consignment for auction, and it's been a privilege to have had the opportunity to sell over one thousand of them. It is most exciting to see them in their raw state, not yet holdered by a certification company. Often, that is how we have received them, as ungraded, and we sent them out for certification on behalf of auction sellers," said Josh Nathanson, President of ComicLink.

Keep in mind these comics were published in the neighborhood of 70 years ago!

"They are always so flat, with such sharp edges, and often appear nicer than the certified grades. Visually beautiful, and of course always with compelling covers from the EC line. The story surrounding them is really interesting. It was so visionary for editor Bill Gaines to have set aside, mostly 12 of each issue, for the future, and in my mind, I can visualize with envy such pioneers in our hobby as Gaines, Bob Overstreet, and Russ Cochran sitting around a table ranking each example of every issue by relative grade," Nathanson said.

"I don't think there's a pedigree more beloved than the William Gaines File Copies. A lot of that has to do with the emotional attachment we have to this publisher that most of us never even met. Collectors just think of Gaines as an old friend who's responsible for a lot of our favorite comics and magazines. Those books were really traded around the playground, too, and the old *MAD*s were often loved to death. Of course, a lot of those EC comics were also killed off by concerned mothers," said Vincent Zurzolo, Chief Operating Officer of Comic Connect.

"It feels like Gaines was doing us all a favor by putting aside those 12 copies of every classic EC comic. You see that Certificate of Authenticity, and it's kind of heartwarming," he said.

ALMOST SUNSET GN

(W/A) Wahab Algarmi

It's almost sunset, and Hassan has been dreaming about eating since the sun rose that morning. Hassan is facing a hectic month of homework, soccer, and gaming, all while fasting every day for the holy month of Ramadan. Not eating until sundown intensifies Hassan's already busy days—his teachers and friends barely understand Ramadan and its traditions, and it's especially tough keeping up with soccer practice, as the team hopes to win the championship this season. At the same time, Ramadan brings Hassan's family and community closer together: from waking up at sunrise every morning, to feasting and attending mosque in the evenings. As Ramadan stretches on, Hassan struggles to keep up his grades, and his friend Rosie is inching closer to taking his starting spot on the team. Because he's too busy to game with his friends during Ramadan, Rosie also fills in for him with his gaming squad. Hassan wants to be able to do it all—but how can he do that if he's not sharing the truth with everyone, especially himself? (STL351372) (C: 0-1-0)

ART! TRASH! TERROR! ADVENTURES IN STRANGE CINEMA SC

(W) Chris Alexander

From recognized classics (George A. Romero's Dawn Of The Dead, David Lynch's The Elephant Man) to misunderstood masterpieces (Michael Mann's The Keep, Boris Sagal's The Omega Man) to unfairly maligned curios (Kostas Karagiannis' Land Of The Minotaur, Brett Leonard's Hideaway), Chris Alexander takes an alternately serious and playful but always personal look at several strains of international horror, dark fantasy, and exploitation film—motion pictures that transform, transgress, challenge, infuriate, shock, and entertain. Connecting these passionate and critical essays are insightful interviews with revered talents, such as John Waters, Michael Winner, Nicolas Cage, Gene Simmons, William Crain, William Lustig, Werner Herzog, and many more, as well as witty, heartfelt memoirs charting the author's oddball experiences on the fringes of Hollywood and beyond. MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN: THE COMPLETE DAILIES VOLUME 3: 1938-1939 HC

Mandrake the Magician began as a daily strip on June 11, 1934, and whether Lee Falk knew it as a sophomore at the University of Illinois, he was making history. The strips presented in this series of reprints feature two staple characters in addition to the master magician: Lothar and Princess Narda (princess of the mythical European kingdom Cockaigne). Lothar appears within the first few days (June 14, 1934), and Narda is introduced in Mandrake's second adventure. Narda is similar to Flash Gordon's Dale Arden: beautiful, constantly in need of rescue, and the love interest of our hero. A Prince of the Seven Nations of Africa, Lothar is Mandrake's devoted servant, friend and companion. He is, "the strongest man in the world," and decked out in a fez, shorts, and a leopard shirt.

This third volume of the series presents eight stories: "Mandrake in Hollywood"; "Sonny the Child Movie Star"; "Mandrake and the Haunted House"; "Blozz the Champion"; "Mandrake in Love"; "Visitors from Space"; "The Deep South"; and "Mandrake in Cockaigne."

Crandall, announces that it will now welcome Black girls.... Thirty years before the abolition of slavery, some fifteen young people in the Crandall school are greeted by a wave of hostility of insane proportion. White America is afraid of some of its children. The story of this school and its legal legacy for civil rights cannot be understated. Crandall v. State (of Connecticut) was the first full-throated civil rights case in U.S. history. The arguments by attorneys in the Crandall case played a role in two of the most fateful Supreme Court decisions, Dred Scott v. Sandford, and the landmark case of Brown v. Board of Education. It catapulted Ms. Crandall into a Civil Rights pioneer. (STL351202) (C: 0-1-1)

Montgomery, Alabama, December 1, 1955: at the end of the working day, 42-year-old Rosa Parks, a black leather dressmaker, takes bus 2857, heading home. She sits in a center row, but when a white passenger gets on after a few stops, the driver asks her to get up to give him her seat, as required by the rules. Rosa knows them well: the blacks sit in the back, the whites in front, while the center seats are mixed and can only be used if all the others are occupied, but the whites retain priority. Her refusal turns her into a heroine of black rights, engaged in the fight against segregation that oppresses Alabama and other southern states. This is her story shown in a context of why it is still so resonant today. (STL213955)

Eisner and Harvey Award–nominated writer Justin Jordan (The Strange Talent of Luther Strode, Dead Body Road) and #1 best-selling artist Chris Shehan (House of Slaughter) throw a brass-knuckled gut punch of revenge-horror torn from the forgotten corners of Appalachia, where magic and murder go hand in hand . . .

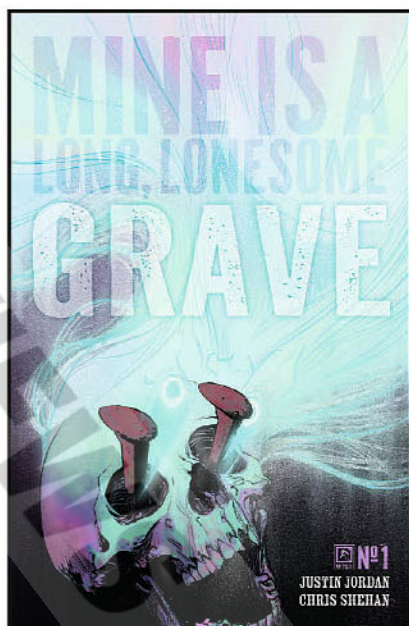

Harley Creed is a bad man. He used to be worse. A violent ex-con with a string of brutal crimes in his past, he only wanted one thing when he finally walked free from prison: to leave Briar Falls, WV, behind and disappear forever. But Harley's hometown has a strange way of swallowing people whole—call it a consequence of the low-level folk magic that has permeated its darker corners for generations. And now that Harley has returned, pent-up vengeance for his past crimes is about to come roaring back. Somebody has put a hex on him—and Harley has seven days before he dies in twisted, screaming agony.

To reverse it, Harley must find and kill his unseen enemy before their curse can reap its terrible end. But in Briar Falls, there's no shortage of suspects—and Harley is coming for them all. If can't have peace, at least he can have revenge.

From writer Andrew Wheeler (Another Castle, Cat Fight) and artist Rye Hickman (The Harrowing) comes a touching story of religion, desire, and what it means to be yourself no matter how lonely or scared you feel.

Mark is a good Catholic boy. He goes to church, says his prayers, and spends too much time worrying about hell. When Mark realizes he has a crush on another boy in his school, he struggles to reconcile his feelings with his faith as the weight of centuries of shame and judgment—and his fear of his parents' response—presses on his shoulders. Mark seeks advice from his priest, as well as a local drag performer, but also receives unexpected input from key figures in Catholic history and lore, including Joan of Arc, Michelangelo, St. Sebastian, and Savonarola. GOLDEN AGE CLASSICS: BLACK CONDOR & THE RAY SOFTEE VOLUME 2 SC

(A) Reed Crandall & Various

Lou Fine was one of the most impressive and influential artists to ever work in comics. His fluid figures were admired and copied by such greats as Joe Simon and Jack Kirby. In the early 40's, the heyday of the Golden Age, he worked for Everett M. "Busy" Arnold at Quality Comics, and in addition to his impressive covers, he worked on such comics as the Black Condor. Richard Grey Jr., having lost his parents, was raised by giant black condors and after studying his condor foster parents, he learned to fly. Fine also created The Ray, a reporter named Hubert "Happy"

Terrill who was covering the story of a high-flying "strato-balloon" exploring the upper atmosphere. An electrical storm struck and while closing the outer airlock door, "Happy" got the full brunt of the storm's energy and the unfiltered sunlight giving him his super powers to absorb energy from his surroundings and emit it from his body in any form he chose. Toby Press was a small but respectable comics publisher, which also used the imprint Minoan; they put out one issue of Tales of Terror, then got hit by a cease-and-desist order from E.C., which used that title for their annuals (don't worry we'll bring you that particular issue later on). Toby dropped that and started over with Tales of Horror, which ran for 13 issues. Toby may be the only comics publisher to swipe the urbane and cynical stories of John Collier, rather than relying on Poe, Lovecraft, and the like. O/A SATAN WAS A LESBIAN SC

(W) Fred Haley (CA) Doug Weaver

Satan Was A Lesbian is the infamous pulp novel that launched a thousand t-shirts, and coffee mugs and posters and notecards and on and on and on. Many people have seen this cover, but few have read the book or even realized that it was a real book that was published in a simpler, more ignorant time. Following our anti-hero Charlene, Satan Was A Lesbian paints of a picture of a woman who no man could resist, until they looked into her cold, black eyes. Only one person, Cynthia — who became completely "turned on" when she was thoroughly frightened, something even remotely close to love in Charlene — which of course, led to a deadly end. (STL325247)

The early 80s saw 2000 AD hit its golden era. With Judge Dredd, Strontium Dog, Rogue Trooper, Slaine and more firing on all cylinders it became the UK's most exciting and innovative comic. Its covers played no small part in its appeal, and those covers were the brainchild of Robin Smith whose job was to lay out a cover design to pass to an artist who would transform it into the finished product. This collection of some of Smith's cover layouts shows just how integral his ideas were to some of 2000 AD's most famous and revered covers. Never has a film evoked so much dread in its audience with so little gore than Stanley Kubrick's adaptation of the 1977 novel by the master of terror himself, Stephen King, where true horror lies in the darkest corners of domesticity and isolation. Slip in through the back door of The Overlook Hotel to witness Kubrick's endless rounds of script rewrites, his revolutionary use of the Steadicam, the mechanics behind the infamous blood elevator, the mysterious mid-filming fire at Elstree Studios, and the countless takes needed to satisfy the meticulous force that was Kubrick. AMERICAN COMIC BOOK CHRONICLES: 1940-44 HC

It was a time when America's entry into World War II was presaged by the arrival of such patriotic do-gooders as Will Eisner's Uncle Sam, Harry Shorten and Irv Novick's The Shield, and Joe Simon and Jack Kirby's Captain America. It was when teenage culture found expression in a fumbling red-haired high school student named Archie Andrews. But most of all, the first five years of the 1940s was the age of the "packagers" when studios headed by men like Harry A. Chesler, Will Eisner, and Jerry Iger churned out material for a plethora of new comic book companies that published the entire gamut of genres, from funny animal stories to crime tales to jungle sagas to science-fiction adventures. It's time to discover your hidden talent! What if you could use skills from previous lives? Imagine the skills of a legendary sword master or the quick mental calculations of a prominent mathematician facing off against the murderous techniques of a serial killer! Newton, Einstein, Miyamoto Musashi... The talents of the most famous (and infamous) people in history are back to change the world once again!

Compiling the original volumes 1 and 2 of Mikihisa Konishi's hit manga, the story follows Touya Senji, a woefully ordinary student who can't escape the shadow of his talented older brother, as he discovers the world of "Returners" through his unusual classmate Haito Le Buffet. With new possibilities at his feet, where will Touya's thirst for recognition take him? And what conflicts exist among the Returners?

Unable to coexist with other species, humans mercilessly destroyed everything in their path, forcing fauna and flora into hiding. For hundreds of years, the world has been nothing but a vast, barren desert. Luckily, a few pockets of nature still exist; sanctuaries of witches, extraordinary women who can hear the call of the plants. Despite their abilities, humans despise witches and blame them for the disappearance of nature. While Pili continues her search for eden with Oak by her side, she has yet to grasp the true mercilessness of the world around her. A run-in with another traveling witch opens her eyes to the harsh reality of traveling solo. The witch, Laminala, vows to teach Pili all she needs to know about survival in a barren land. Oak keeps watch over Pili, even when her worldview needs a major adjustment. She must challenge her own beliefs before she's ready to start her search for Eden in earnest. HAUNTRESS GN

(W/A/CA) Minetaro Mochizuki

A seminal work of horror from 1993, this classic from the author of Dragon Head is finally appearing in English for the first time. Hiroshi Mori is an ordinary college student leading an unremarkable life, until one day he hears someone ringing his neighbor's doorbell over and over again. He goes out onto the landing and finds a strange woman in a trenchcoat—whose tenacious attention soon transfers to him. Stalked and harassed by this monstrous woman, Hiroshi tries to find out the truth about her before she ruins his life completely. Incorporating elements of psychological horror and urban legend, and credited with introducing the idea of stalking to Japan, Mochizuki's early masterpiece remains just as terrifying as it was when it first appeared over 30 years ago. KISS BET VOLUME 1 GN

(W/A/CA) Ingrid Ochoa

It's senior year and Sara Lin just turned eighteen. She's got great friends, a cool dad (or so he thinks), and a whole lot ahead of her. The last thing she needs is to worry about having her first kiss. But that's all about to change because her good pal Patrick just challenged her to a bet that will either lead to love, heartbreak, or embarrassment... or maybe all three. Sara Lin understands that her first kiss is a rite of passage, one that she takes very seriously, even if everyone around her doesn't. She wants it to be special—true love's kiss—and wants to fall for someone she really cares about, not just get it over with. Along the way, as Sara explores her relationship options with three different boys... she discovers that life isn't a fairytale and romance is inherently complex. It's messy and complicated, but boy, it sure can be fun. (STL352284) Scheduled to ship in February 2025. (C: 0-1-2)

DIAMOND SELECT TOYS TURNS THE CLOCK BACK TO THE '90S WITH THEIR NEW SPIDER-MAN STATUE

The early 1990s witnessed an artistic revolution with Marvel Comics' Spider-Man as artists like Todd McFarlane, Erik Larsen, and Mark Bagley put an indelible stamp on the friendly neighborhood wallcrawler that remains to this day with big eyes, twisty body, and knotted web. Diamond Select Toys celebrates this revolution with the Marvel Milestones: Comic Spider-Man (1990s) 1/6-Scale Statue, depicting a contorted Spider-Man swinging above a chimney in the city that he so loves. Designed by Nelson Ascencia and sculpted by Sandro Luis Sampaio, Diamond Select Toys' Marvel Milestones: Comic Spider-Man (1990s) 1/6-Scale Statue is limited to 1,000 pieces and will remind fans of the artistic joy and excitement that powered Marvel's Spider-Man comics in the early 1990s!

From Square Enix. Cloud Strife, the main character, and Hardy-Daytona, the latest model motorcycle made by Shinra from Final Fantasy VII, join the Bring Arts lineup as a set! The handlebars are movable at the base of the shaft, allowing Cloud to hold the handlebars and pose leaning forward to ride the motorcycle. The memorable scene from the game where Cloud escapes from the Shinra Building can also be recreated. (STL337442) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. O/A AUTO WORLD: 1934 FORD 3 WINDOW COUPE HIGH BOY HOT ROD 1/18-SCALE DIE-CAST VEHICLE

From Round 2. From the factory, the 1934 Ford Coupe Model 40B was available in both 5-window coupe and the rarer 3-window body style. Even though nearly all of the underbody workings and the measurements were identical, they could be bought in either Standard or Deluxe trim, depending on the buyer's need for personal luxury or added amenities. Under the hood of the 1934 Ford was the 221ci flat-head V8 engine with a 3.0625in bore and 3.75in stroke that produced 85 HP. Ford sold a total of 28,492 units of the standard 3-window coupe and 27,956 Deluxe 3-window coupe. (STL334814) Available Now! (7170/AW292/06) (C: 1-1-2) Die-Cast..... $104.99

AUTO WORLD: 1935 DUESENBERG SSJ SPEEDSTER 1/18-DIE-CAST VEHICLE

From Round 2. Duesenberg Motors Company was an American manufacturer of race cars and high-end luxury automobiles. Their quality and detail garnered the attention of the rich and famous across the United States in the early 20th century. One such vehicle stood above the rest—the 1935 Duesenberg SSJ Speedster. Only two SSJ Speedsters were ever actually built. The first was painted gray-on-gray and owned by actor Gary Cooper. The second was a red and metallic green Speedster lent to Clark Gable, an established Duesenberg customer in 1936. Both of these Duesenbergs were identical, except for their colors. Auto World has replicated this SSJ Speedster in authentic Duesenberg colors, just as if production never ceased, allowing more colors to be produced! This paint combo is truly a dream come true! (STL334819) (7170/AW305/06) (C: 1-1-2) Die-Cast..... $104.99

AUTO WORLD: 1947 CADILLAC SERIES 62 CABRIOLET 1/18-SCALE DIE-CAST VEHICLE

From Round 2. The Cadillac Series 62, introduced in 1940, became a cornerstone for Cadillac, especially after WWII, when the brand consolidated its lineup to survive. Auto World proudly presents a 1:18 scale die-cast replica of the 1947 Cadillac Series 62 with a custom metallic green exterior, dark green and cream interior, and a tan soft top. O/A AUTO WORLD: 1953 CADILLAC ELDORADO CONVERTIBLE 1/18-SCALE DIE-CAST VEHICLE

From Round 2. In 1952, Cadillac was celebrating their 50-year golden anniversary. They needed an exquisite vehicle to epitomize their momentous milestone. The Cadillac Eldorado was the answer. It was the most expensive vehicle in their lineup. The sweeping lines, golden emblems, and breathtaking chrome detailing was irresistibly luxurious and 100% Cadillac quality. The name Eldorado loosely translates from Spanish to "The Golden One." It also references Eldorado, the South American lost city of gold. If Cadillac set out to establish the gold standard of luxury, they succeeded with the Eldorado. Auto World has replicated this rolling work of art in factory-matched Alpine White, wire wheels, and enough chrome for two vehicles! We've even replicated the white soft top in the "up" position. Under the hood is the highly-detailed 331ci V8 with 4-speed transmission. (STL334835) Available Now! (7170/AW316/06) (C: 1-1-2) Die-Cast..... $104.99

AUTO WORLD: 1957 CHEVY BEL AIR CONVERTIBLE SILVER 1/18-SCALE DIE-CAST VEHICLE

From Round 2. For the final year of the Tri-Fives, Chevrolet added an exclamation point to the popular 1955 and 1956 Chevy Bel Air models with the 1957 Chevy Bel Air. Featuring longer swept lines, larger fins, and a bold gold front grill, this car became an icon of its era and a symbol of American culture. The 1957 Bel Air, available only with a V8, included carbureted options of 162hp and 180hp, and a 283 V8 producing 220hp. The ultimate version was the rare 283hp fuel-injected "fuelie." Auto World has faithfully replicated this classic in a 1:18 scale die-cast model, showcasing the Inca Silver paint with a striking red and silver interior. This model includes a detailed engine, steerable front wheels, accurate interior and chassis, and opening doors and hood. (STL334823) (7170/AW307/06) (C: 1-1-2) Die-Cast..... $104.99

He is also known for being playful, fun-loving, and energetic. When he got behind the wheel of his kart in the super smash hit video game series Nickelodeon Kart Racers, he proved himself yet again. Rebuilt and re-imagined from the ground up, Nickelodeon Kart Racers 3: Slime Speedway is the best in the franchise, and Mikey is back in a very special way. He brought along with him the legendary Channel Six News Van. The Mikey-News Van combo absolutely had to be made into a true-to-scale radio-controlled replica and here it is. This highly detailed sculpt captures the essence and playfulness of Mikey beautifully, and the open wheel full function News Van racer is surprisingly fast and easy to control. The 2.4GHz frequency allows up to 16 racers to race at the same time with up to 100-foot range! (STL345973) (7737/2403) (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in US, Canada, and US territories.

DUNGEON CRAWL CLASSICS #100: THE MUSIC OF THE SPHERES IS CHAOS BOXED SET

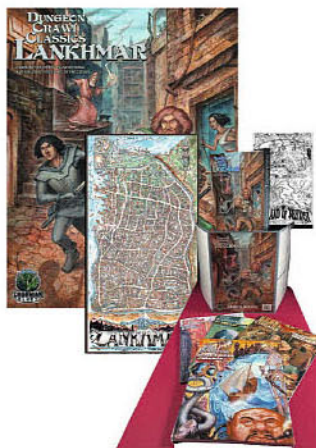

Eons past, a brotherhood of mad philosopher-kings marched an army of slaves into the heart of a mountain. On their backs they bore a legendary treasure-hoard: coffers spilling over with blazing gems, strongboxes bright with gold, and the jeweled idols of a thousand gods. They were never seen again. Today the gleaming domes at the top of the world have fallen to the passage of time and the crush of glaciers. Once-imperious halls are coated with dust and ice; memories of the fabled treasure hoard—and the heretical Theophages—are lost to antiquity. But deep within the heart of the mountain, the flames of Chaos sputter and flare. Now the legacy of the God Eaters is drawing to a close. With each thunderous turn of the Alembic Key, meteors streak the sky and prophets fling themselves from the turrets of high towers. In the alleys and the palaces, all know that the hour of the dragon will soon be at hand. Can you and your companions master the mysteries of the God Eaters in time? Or, like so many others before, will you succumb to the Music of the Spheres? (STL309022)

Within you will find new classes, creatures, patrons, spells, and more inspired by the Dying Earth stories for use in your DCC RPG game including four new classes: magician, vat-thing, wayfarer, and witch, as well as new rules for "grudge tokens" to track the resentments that characters accumulate with every minor impregnation they encounter. Enter the thrilling world of Fritz Leiber's Nehwon, home to the legendary city of Lankhmar and the infamous heroes Fafhrd and the Gray Mouser!
